Volunteers Make Us Great!

MAKE THE GARAGE SALE GREAT AGAIN! 2017 will be another great year for the WWCA Garage Sale, just like the last 31 years. In order to make sure that happens, we need a few volunteers to help out for a day or two prior to and on the day of the garage sale.

One group is needed to help assemble the packets that go to each garage sale participant and then deliver the packets the evening before the garage sale. This would entail meeting for 1-2 hours the Wednesday or Thursday (we'll see which day works best for people) prior to the sale to assemble the packets. You would then take home a set of packets to deliver on Friday to designated participants.

The second group would come to Mike Webber's house Friday evening when convenient and pick up garage sale signs to be paced in designated locations either Friday night or Saturday morning. All signs would then need to be taken down Saturday after the garage sale, and returned over the weekend to Mike's house.

In addition to our tireless Wire Carriers (yay!), four officers and board members (Mike Webber, Davor Engel, Dorie Westmeyer and Sue Gregoire) handle all West Walker business. Many hands make light the work. We'd appreciate your help.

To volunteer, contact Mike Webber at webber.wwca@gmail.com or call 773-539-8346.

Dear Neighbor,

THERE ARE MANY EXCITING THINGS THIS SPRING in the West Walker Neighborhood. The annual West Walker Civic Association Garage and Yard Sale is planned for Saturday, May 20 from 9 am to 4 pm. Please see the application on the back of the Wire for details.

Please see front page article in this month's Wire about volunteer opportunities to assist in the Annual Garage Sale. Three or four people are needed to help assemble and distribute the City Garage Sale permits and information to all participants, and another 3-4 to help place and remove Garage Sale signs around the Neighborhood.

The first general meeting of the year was March 21. I want to thank the many neighbors who attended to provide input on the new CPL Independence Branch being built on the site of the former Hollerbach Funeral Home at 4022 N. Elston Ave. We will continue to provide updates on the library project and continue to solicit input to guide its design and amenities through the spring, at our monthly meetings as well as through the website and email blasts. Also expect to hear that public meetings regarding the project will be announced soon.

Our next two West Walker monthly meetings are on April 18 and May 16.

Congressman Mike Quigley is making plans to attend our April 18 general meeting. Although an unexpected call to Washington may interfere with those plans, we hope he will be able to join us. Watch the website and email blast for updates.

What Happens if You Die Without a Will?

by Audrey Cosgrove, Attorney

In Illinois, if you die without a will, or intestate and/or you are survived by a spouse or descendants...

Survived by a spouse and descendants – Your spouse will inherit one-half of your estate and your children will inherit the remaining one-half per stirpes.

Survived by a spouse and no descendants – Your spouse will inherit your entire probate estate.

Survived by descendants and no spouse – Your descendants will inherit the entire probate estate, per stirpes.

But what if you do not have a spouse or descendants?

Survived by parents, siblings and/or descendants of a deceased sibling – Your parents and siblings will equally inherit your estate. If one parent is dead, then the surviving parent will inherit a double share. If a sibling is deceased then their descendants will inherit the share, per stirpes.

Not survived by parents, brothers, sisters, or descendants of brothers or sisters- Your estate will be divided so that one-half will go to your paternal family and the other half will go to your maternal family. If there are no survivors on one side the other side will get everything.

Not survived by any family members- Your estate will go to the State of Illinois.

What does per stirpes mean? It means that if a descendant is dead, then their descendants share equally in the descendant's portion of the estate. And your estate is what is left after your expenses are paid.

Audrey Cosgrove is the owner of The Cosgrove Law Firm L.L.C., in Chicago.

CAPS Report

Beats 1722 & 1723 Beat Meeting, March 15, 2017

Present: CAPS Sergeant Peter Kontil, CAPS Officer Hamid, Beat Facilitator Martha Hack, Gail Beitz - 39th Ward Office (Alderman Laurino), Monica Trevino - 35th Ward Office (Alderman Rosa).

Sgt. Kontil began the meeting by announcing that there would be several guest speakers. The first was Oscar Torrez, a dispatcher and trainer from the 911 Call Center. Mr. Torrez explained the three levels calls are assigned that come in to 911.

1. A threat to life or crime in progress. These would be shots fired, burglary in progress, domestic violence. Callers should give a full head-to-toe description, race, gender, facial hair, clothing description, glasses, hat, etc. In level 1. calls, the call taker is usually also sending the call to dispatch while the caller is on the line. The call taker is most interested in getting a description of the offender and location.

2. Level 2 calls are crimes that have just occurred. Offender might be nearby. There's no imminent danger to a person.
3. Level 3 calls are calls about a nuisance – music, parking or filing a report.

Mr. Torrez stressed that the operator's job is to take the call. They aren't the dispatcher, so they don't know when someone will be out. Also, location is important. If you don't know the exact address, provide cross streets or a nearby landmark. Callers can request to be anonymous. On drug and gang calls, the operator will ask you if you want to be anonymous. When calling 911 about something you think is suspicious, tell the operator you want to report suspicious activity, not a suspicious person. Suspicious activity can be acted upon, while a call about a suspicious person might invite more questions from the operator about why the person is suspicious.

The new owner of L&P Liquors at Lawrence and Pulaski spoke about his plans for improving the liquor store and tap room. Tom from Nick's Billiards in the strip mall at 4445 N. Pulaski talked about their application for an incidental liquor license.

Irving Park Fine Arts Committee Presents Carthage Faculty Trio

On Sunday, April 23rd at 2:00 p.m., the Irving Park Fine Arts Committee will present the Carthage Faculty Trio in the final concert of its 2016-2017 season. The trio is comprised of Wael Farouk, piano, Andrew Williams, violin and Allegra Montanari, cello. The concert will be held at Irving Park Lutheran Church, 4100 N. Harding Ave.

Egyptian-American pianist Wael Farouk has performed on five continents in such venues as the White Hall in St. Petersburg, Schumann's house in Leipzig and Carnegie Hall in New York. Farouk has had an extensive performing career. He commands a vast repertoire of more than 70 concertos and 60 solo programs and in 2014 performed a five recital series featuring the complete solo works of Rachmaninoff, a feat the Chicago Tribune hailed as "historical." He is a professor of piano at Carthage College.

Violinist Andrew Williams has established himself as an extraordinary chamber musician, soloist and teacher. As a former member of the critically acclaimed Fifth House Ensemble, he has performed at Columbia University's Miller Theatre on their Composer Portrait series, on Rush Hour's yearly summer music series and participated in many master classes at institutions such as the University of Wisconsin-Madison and New Music on The Point. Williams is an adjunct Professor of Violin at Carthage College and teaches at the nationally renowned Merit School of Music, where he has been on faculty since 2008 and serves as String Department Chair.

Cellist Allegra Montanari has performed extensively in orchestras across the nation. She has had the pleasure of playing principal for orchestras of the Chicago College of Performing Arts, Round Top Festival Orchestra and the Spoleto Festival USA. Montanari has served as an Associate Member of the Civic Orchestra of Chicago and is a section member of the Sarasota Opera Orchestra. She is an adjunct faculty member at Carthage College and is the founder of Sharing Notes, a charity that organizes music performances in hospitals.

Caption: The Carthage Trio will perform on April 23rd at Irving Park Lutheran Church.

The Trio will perform an all-Brahms program, which includes Brahms' Trio No.3 in C minor, op. 101 and sonatas for violin and cello. A reception with the artists follows the concert. Admission is free; donations are welcome. Fine Arts concerts feature polished, professional musicians, but the concerts are relaxed and casual, lasting a little over an hour. Perfect for families!

The Irving Park Fine Arts Series, now in its 23rd season, was begun by Roger Bingaman, the series artistic director. Carlson Community Services, which sponsors the Irving Park Fine Arts concert series, is a 501(c)(3) non-profit. Its mission is to connect the Irving Park community with programs that enrich lives through education, culture and service. John Ronan Announced as Architect for New Independence Library

On Sunday, March 19, John Ronan Architects was unveiled as the winner of a city design competition for the new Independence Park Library at 4022 N. Elston. The design includes a library on the ground level with affordable housing above as part of a unique agreement between the Chicago Housing Authority and the Chicago Public Library for a mixed-use development at the site. John Ronan Architects was recently the only Chicago finalist for the Obama Library.

After Independence Park Library's former location closed in 2015 due to smoke damage from a fire at the adjacent building, neighbors and supporters lobbied for a new and improved library. In October, it was announced that the library would have a new permanent home where the former Hollerbach Funeral Home was located.

A public meeting to gather community input on the final design will be announced at a later date. Construction on the new library is slated to begin later this year, with completion anticipated by winter of 2018.

For questions or comments, visit ward45.org or call 773-286-4545. We are located at 4754 N. Milwaukee.

side neighbors. Approximately, half of the neighbors served are homeless, many facing homelessness for multiple years and the other half would likely lose their homes without the assistance Hands to Help provides.

Recently, we partnered with an area church to help a homeless neighbor obtain housing. Although he was employed fulltime as a manager at a local coffee shop, "Morris" was experiencing homeless due to health issues associated with a multi-year battle with cancer and challenges with budgeting. He learned of Hands to Help through his Pastor. Together, Hands to Help's Outreach Worker worked with Morris to identify an apartment at a community partner. Morris moved in right after Labor Day with the help of Hands to Help's Neighbor Assistance Fund. The Fund helped Morris pay his security deposit and first month's rent. Hands to Help continues to work with Morris and the partner church to ensure he remains housed.

Hands to Help is proud of the large number of community donors who support our work. We hope you will join us. Visit our website to buy event and Raffle tickets. This event has a history of selling out. Buy your tickets today. See you there!

Jazzed for Jazz

Students in grades four through eight were treated to a once in a lifetime experience on Thursday, March 2, when they walked to Schurz High School to see Wynton Marsalis and Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra. Mr. Marsalis is a world-renowned and award-winning trumpeter as well as the managing and artistic director of Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra. He led students through an amazing introduction of the basics of jazz through the telling of the early life and works of the great Count Basie. Belding students were thrilled and honored to be a part of such an awesome event!

Rich Semester of Art All students at Belding are learning African rhythms, dance and textiles this semester. A Creative Schools Fund grant for $15,000 has allowed our school to bring three artists in residence to Belding for the spring. Every student in grades K-8 will receive workshops focusing on West African culture and arts with a textile artist (Diane Sutliff of Go Get Your Smock), dancer Mark Vaughn (Human Rhythm Project) and djembe expert Michael Taylor, of Old Town School of Folk Music. Each artist is also doing a deeper residency with a few grade levels so that students develop new skills and appreciation for the music, dance and visual arts of West Africa.

Are you curious to see what Belding Elementary has to offer your child? Each month Principal Heather Yutzky offers school tours for prospective parents. This is a great opportunity to see Belding teachers and students in action, and to learn more about our school. Upcoming tour dates include: April 18, May 16, May 30 and June 6. Tours begin at 8:00 a.m. in the school office.

Belding Elementary School is located at 4257 N. Tripp. Visit us online at beldingelementary.com or call 773-534-3590.

Schurz Students and Yolobe Host Community Engagement Dinner

Schurz students and Yolobe hosted a successful community engagement event on March 9th.

Over the past several months, Schurz Career and Technical Education (CTE) students have been working with David Douglas of Yolobe Inc., a job site network for young adults, to build a positive relationship with community members and the students at Schurz High School. On March 9th, the CTE student ambassadors for Yolobe hosted an informational dinner in the Schurz library for potential community partners, including neighborhood businesses, Friends of Schurz, and neighboring aldermans' offices.

Under the tutelage of Douglas, as well as Schurz staff-CTE Coordinator Amy Johnson, College and Career Director Arlecia Taylor and Assistant Principal Anthony Rodriguez-- the students worked for weeks preparing for this event in hopes these partners will join the Yolobe Network by posting jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities for Schurz students. By taking the first steps to connect with community members, students made this event a great success!

Student Council Meets the Mayor The Student Council, representing all grades at Schurz High School, headed downtown with Alderman Arena, and were recognized at the City Council meeting on March 29th, for the exceptional work they have done for the school. They had the opportunity to tour City Hall, meet Mayor Emanuel, and observe the council meeting.

Schurz Art at Perkolator An exhibition of work by the Art 1 students of Mr. Nelson will be held until April 24th at Perkolator Coffee House located at 6032 W Irving Park Road. Hours are M-F: 6 am to 6 pm and Sat-Sun: 7 am to 6 pm.
